

BREAKFAST

Informal Exchange with Prof. Thornberry on his Commentary of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (ICERD)

The International Movement Against All Forms of Discrimination and Racism (IMADR) and Minority Rights Group International (MRG) cordially invite civil society actors to a breakfast with Professor Patrick Thornberry. Coffee, tea and croissants will be served.

Patrick Thornberry is Emeritus Professor of International Law at Keele University, and a Fellow of Kellogg College, University of Oxford.

Until 2014, Professor Thornberry was a member of the UN Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination (CERD), serving as rapporteur of the Committee from 2002-2008.

He is widely regarded as one of the world's most prominent experts on minority and indigenous rights. He has advised a variety of governments, international and European organisations on matters of human rights and minorities.

He recently published a commentary on the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination at Oxford University Press.

Date

Friday, 25 November 2016

Time

8:30 am – 9:30 am

Venue

First Floor Meeting Room (1-016),
Palais Wilson
52 rue des Pâquis, CH-1201
Geneva, Switzerland

RSVP

Please confirm your attendance via e-mail to: geneva@imadr.org
Registration will be closed at 10am on Wednesday 23 November.

Contact

Taisuke KOMATSU (Mr.)
IMADR
geneva@imadr.org

